

Underwater Photographic Journey in Tanzania

By Marc Grau

This book is a compilation of ninety one underwater photographs taken in the sea waters of Tanzania. The book is divided in four chapters: Mtwara, Mafia, Dar es Salaam and Zanzibar, following the main diving and snorkelling sites of the country. Each one has a small description of the sites where the pictures were made and each photograph has a brief explanation. The reader will find, inside, some of the nicest Indian Ocean underwater animals as Morays, Nudibranchs, Frogfishes, Corals, Sea stars...
